

100TH Power Triode

100TH was one of the most known power transmitting triode. Two of them were used in the modulator of the BC-610.

As in other power tubes of the family, the number indicates the plate power dissipation in Watts: 100 stays for 100W.