

1636 – Beam-Deflection Heptode Mixer

Beam-deflection heptode intended as balanced mixer at 600MHz. Used in the receiving section of the AN/TPS-3 radar that used the VT-158 Zahl tube in the transmitting section.

Designed by RCA in the early 1944, was also built by Ken-Rad.

Registration release: November 3, 1944. RMA record 0389.