

5670 - Medium-mu VHF Twin Triode

Medium-mu remote cutoff high frequency twin triode. Ruggedized version of 2C51, heater current increased to 350 mA.

Low microphonics amplifier, usable for a wide variety of applications, including VHF amplifiers, oscillators or mixers, multivibrators, synchronizing amplifiers, industrial controls, computers. Military, mobile and aircraft applications up to 80,000 feet.

6.3 V heater, mu 35.

Registered to General Electric in September 1948. Data available in the RMA record 692.

