

5721 – Reflex Klystron, External Cavity

External cavity reflex klystron. May be used over a range extended from 2.0 to 12.0 GHz in CW or pulsed operation. 160 mW average output. 4 pin 'Peewee' base.

6.3 V at 0.58A heater.

Also available with Raytheon proprietary marking as RK-5721. The tube was registered to Raytheon in October 1948. Data are given in the RMA record 702. An application note was given in Electronics, January 1955.