

931A – Photomultiplier

Probably the first commercial photomultiplier, introduced in June 1941. S-4 blue sensitive surface, 9-stage multiplier.

Here is an interesting application of the 931A in a very early optical character reader, from Electronics, May 1955.

RCA, October 1943. Data in the RMA record 353.

