

BR2 – Brown CRT Demo

Narva demonstration CRT for Physics Laboratories.

"This CRT was built to show the operating principle of the cathode ray tube, first developed by Ferdinand Braun, to the students of technical schools. It should be noted that this tube has a filament heated, oxide covered cathode: it can be safely operated at low anode voltage."

6.3V at 0.4A heater.