

CX-301-A – Early Triode Amplifier

The CX-301-A was the Cunningham equivalent of the Radiotron UX201A, introduced in the late 1925.

UX base, 5 volts at 0.25 amps filament.

The sample above is complete with its box.