

SC3-1200 – Corona Voltage Stabilizer

Corona stabilizer, hydrogen filled, used for high voltage, low current supplies or as a high voltage reference tube. Cartridge-type body can be mounted in fuse holder clips or soldered by means of the attached wire leads. Red and black dots identify anode and cathode.

1200V at 11 to 125 μ A.