

TM15 – Triode Amplifier

French triode power amplifier, also usable as oscillator. Derived from the early TM in use during the Great War, this sample can be dated around the early twenties. Probably manufactured by SIF, Société Independante de T.S.F., as in the photo by Tyne at page 399.

Horizontal coaxial electrodes typical of the French TM type.

5.3 volts at 1.2 amps filament.