

VT-1 – Very Early Triode

VT-1, also known as CW-933 or WE type 203A, was one of the very early tubes, designed during WWI to military specs. Corrugated plate and ladder grid from punched sheet metal. UV base.

General purpose triode, used as detector, amplifier and low-power transmitter.

2.2 volts at 1 amp filament.

VT-1 was produced in volume through WWI